

Elise Packard, JD, ACC

Elise is sought out for her skill at helping leaders navigate complex organizational environments while strengthening confidence, influence, and authentic leadership. Elise is an ICF certified coach with almost 20 years of experience leading organizations at the top levels of the Federal government. She currently holds a reinstatable Top-Secret security clearance.

Her combination of hands-on C-suite experience with her coaching style of exploration, humor and partnership allows clients to discover new ways of being and acting that transform their leadership.

Some examples of coaching topics Elise supports her clients with are:

Imposter Syndrome	Thriving in Change
Getting Unstuck	Powerfully Connecting with Colleagues
Dealing With Difficult People & Teams	Communication
Leadership Presence	Authentic Leadership Style
Honoring your Values in your Career	Navigating Difficult Decisions

Previously, Elise served as the Deputy General Counsel for Operations at EPA and held SES positions at both EPA and the Department of Commerce. Educated at Georgetown University Law Center and Brown University, Elise has worked with clients throughout the Federal Government including the EPA, Department of Commerce, Department of Labor amongst others. Her private sector clients include Executive Directors and managers of non-profit organizations, partners at law firms, and individuals navigating career change. She has also provided training and facilitation for Boards and teams.

Elise enjoys working with leaders that are out to make a difference in their organizations, their teams and their lives and want to explore what might be getting in the way.